McKENNEY ROAD, FRANK L. FALLEN
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

LARGE CIRCULATION

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $1.50 PER YEAR.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5.

The State Board of Equalization adjourned Saturday.

The Oklahoma boomers are now happy. That territory is open at last.

Dix Tatt's bank stock was sold at public auction Monday for $7,850.75.

President Harrison drew his first month's salary last Wednesday. It amounted to $3,688.88.

The Bell county outlaws of the Henderson-Turner faction are in jail in Kentucky and Tennessee.

D. J. BURWETT, of Lawrence, county, Ky., has been appointed marshal for the district of Kentucky.

EX-SENATOR, H. H. SKILES, of Bowling Green, has had a suffering of the brain, and is now in the asylum at Hopkinsville.

The government will have fish ways put over the dams on Green and Barren rivers so that fish may go up stream at all seasons.

A CYCLOPE of the coast of Samoa, destroyed three United States ships and three vessels belonging to the Germans, with a heavy loss of life.

BETTIE SUEVA, a respectable young servant girl of Lexington, was murdered in her room at night. Her lover is supposed to be the murderer.

JUDGE GRACE has decided the $200,000 subsidy voted by the county to the O. V. railroad illegal, because two propositions were voted on the same day.

JOHN BURWETT, one of the most conspicuous figures in modern England, is dead. His life was one long line of justice and triumph, and closed in a gloomy shadow.

The State Convention which meets in Louisville, May 5th has 917 delegates. Col. Barry Sturge, of Frankfort, has announced himself a candidate against Mr. Sharpe.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has notified the Senate that he will need their services no longer, and that he has probably adjourned yesterday. The President has already made over $500 nominations.

MRS. S. L. MOREHEAD, of Vine Grove, passed sanctification last Friday at the infirmary meeting at that place. Shortly afterward, she went into a trance and died at five o'clock next morning.

We have received a copy of "The Eleventh's Favorite," compiled and edited by Prof. L. C. Early, of Haverhill. The selections are excellent for use by churches in elocution or for the general reader.

EVERY colored servant has been discharged from the White House. Mrs. Harrison does not like colored servants, so they had to go. The President has given the colored servants recognition in the political world, and yet without his vote, Benjamin Harrison would not be practicing law in the quiet town of Indianapolis.

The appointment of Robert Lincoln to be minister to the court of St. James took the court by surprise, but by no means displeased it. The appointment of Allen Thordyke leaves to the Russian Minister the two Russian Ministers.

President Harrison has made excellent appointments to the important Missouri, and the Republicanism of a single one cannot be doubted.

THE Owsensons and Falls of Hough managers have given to the Hubbard Trust Company of New York City a mortgage for $500,000 on the property owned or to be owned by the company. This mortgage was given to secure money to build the road, and it is not probable that the Falls of Hough people are well backed by the necessary funds. The mortgage has been recorded in Owsensons, and also entered for record in the Ohio County Clerk's office.

READ the statement from the citizens of the Lawrence precinct on this railroad tax. They talk like men of business. They have for several years paid a railroad tax of 25 cents, and still have to pay it three or four years more, and they are glad they need the subscription, for in so doing they get the road. If those people have paid 25 cents for several years to get the O. V., our people could well afford to accept a chance to get a national line for 25 cents per year for two years. A fair railroad proposition would not be asked.

At the railroad election in Calhoun last Saturday, Beech Grove, Kenney and Calhoun voted for the proposition, while the measure was carried in Sacramento and Vienna precincts.

ARCHER HEWITT has brought suit against the Covington Commonwealth and Owsensons for libelous slander. Mr. Hewitt will demand much support in this undertaking, and had as well pitied straws against the wind.

MYHENS county, it is stated, can compromise the remainder of her railroad debt at 20 cents to the dollar. This question will have to be settled some time, and a better compromise than this may never be offered them.

OUR COL. GEN. WILLIAM O. BRADLEY has at last gotten a place as candidate for Vice-President, after a cabinet position, then anything he wanted. The President sends him to Corea on a salary of only $5,000 a year. Bradley might not have desired more, but the State he represents did. It was not large enough for the Colonel, so he refused to accept.

The President has made the following important appointments to foreign missions:

Mr. Herbert Todd Lipson, as Minister to the Court of St. James; Allen Thordyke, Minister to Russia; Thomas B. Kenney, Minister to Chile; Thomas B. Kenney, Minister to Mexico; John Hicks, of Wisconsin, Minister to the Republic of Santo Domingo; and Mr. William O. Bradley, as Minister to Germany.
